NEWS RELEASE

PHILADELPHIA - United States Attorney Michael L. Levy and Philadelphia District Attorney Lynne Abraham today announced the unsealing of a three-count indictment¹ charging Troy Davis, with theft from interstate or foreign shipments by carrier and theft by government employee. The indictment alleges that Davis, a Transportation Security Officer at Philadelphia International Airport, responsible for protecting the traveling public by preventing any deadly or dangerous objects from being transported onto an aircraft, stole five laptop computers and a Play Station game from luggage he was screening of flights scheduled to depart the airport on March 31, 2009 and on an earlier date.

INFORMATION REGARDING THE DEFENDANT

NAME	CITY	AGE
Troy Davis	Willingboro, N.J.	36

If convicted, defendant Davis faces a maximum sentence of 30 years in prison, a $750,000 fine, 2 years supervised release and a $300 special assessment.

The case was investigated by Transportation Security Administration Office of Inspection and is being prosecuted by Assistant United States Attorneys Arlene Fisk.
